

Lytton Street School Code of Conduct

At Lytton Street School, our Code of Conduct is guided by our core values. These values shape how we learn, interact, and grow together as a school community. All students, staff, and visitors are expected to uphold these values to ensure a safe, respectful, and positive environment for everyone.

Responsive

We respond with care, kindness, and responsibility.

At Lytton Street School, being responsive means:

- Listening carefully to others and responding respectfully
- Following instructions and school routines
- Making safe and responsible choices
- Showing care for people, property, and the environment
- Asking for help when needed and supporting others

We will:

- Use kind words and actions
- Follow adult guidance promptly
- Look after school equipment and spaces
- Help others feel safe and included

Inquisitive

We are curious, motivated learners who ask questions.

At Lytton Street School, being inquisitive means:

- Asking questions to deepen our understanding
- Trying new ideas and learning from mistakes
- Engaging positively in learning opportunities
- Showing interest in the world around us

We will:

- Participate actively in learning
- Be open to new challenges
- Share ideas and listen to others' thinking
- Take pride in our learning

Reflective

We think about our actions, learning, and choices.

At Lytton Street School, being reflective means:

- Thinking about how our actions affect others
- Learning from feedback and experiences
- Taking responsibility for our behaviour
- Setting goals for improvement

Kia Ora Kia Tahi, Kia Tahi Kia Ora | Together, we Live to Learn and Learn to Live

We will:

- Apologise and make things right when mistakes happen
- Accept feedback positively
- Think before we act
- Celebrate progress and personal growth

Observant

We notice, respect, and care for what is happening around us.

At Lytton Street School, being observant means:

- Being aware of others' feelings and needs
- Recognising unsafe situations and seeking help
- Respecting differences and diversity
- Caring for our environment

We will:

- Look out for others
- Report concerns to a trusted adult
- Respect personal space and boundaries
- Care for our school and surroundings

Our Shared Commitment

By following this Code of Conduct, we commit to:

- Creating a safe and inclusive school environment
- Treating everyone with respect and fairness
- Taking responsibility for our actions
- Living our values every day

Together, we make Lytton Street School a place where everyone can learn, belong, and succeed.
